

Easiguard®

steel protection system

Easiguard is a steel barrier protection system designed to protect walls, doors, machinery, racking and personnel from potential collisions.

A range of barrier options and configurations are available including barriers, bollards, fences, rails and gates and can be supplied with or without installation as part of an integrated solution with our partitioning and hoarding systems.

Install as an Integrated Solution

Range of Options and Configurations

Quick-to-Install System

Features and Benefits

Available as supply only or supply and installation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quick, minimum disruption installation can be completed in house or with our certified installation team
Comprehensive range of barrier options available to meet specific project requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Protect walls, doors and machinery from potential collision and fork lift damage • Create safe pedestrian walkways to protect personnel • Create designated work areas and site offices within factories and warehouses
Steel with powder coated or hot dipped galvanised finish	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plastic barriers can be more expensive than metal barriers • The key parts of the system are in bright yellow, helping to make the product stand out in any environment
Supplied ready for surface mounting or concreting in to the ground	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quick and simple installation with minimum disruption
We can design and supply a range of low level or part height barrier solutions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Range of solutions from a single supplier • Add to Westgate Global partitioning or structure systems to form an integrated solution

Technical Specifications

Our Easiguard range is bespoke dependant on your business requirements, please contact us for more details.

This fact sheet is for illustrative purposes only and based on the latest information at the time of print. Installation methods may vary depending on specific project requirements. Westgate Global reserve the right to make changes at any time without notice.

J336-WFD-PFS-EG-010323 © Westgate Global Ltd